First Performance

DURING THE EVENTFUL YEAR just drawing to a close, a First Performance has been played at Xavier—the first scholastic year upon the long-awaited stage of the new high school.

In the artificial world of the theater, there is a glamour attached to Opening Night which never comes again. After the curtain goes down on the last act, some of the illusion is gone, and hopes and fears become a reality as success or failure become part of living personalities.

At Xavier there can be no such illusion, because this has not been a make-believe performance, but a production real and tangible and very, very important. It is true that the same scenes have been portrayed before, but on a borrowed stage. The cast has differed with each succeeding year—the lovely Leading Lady has remained the same.

As the graduating class of nineteen fifty-seven take their places for the grand finale, as they walk on stage for their last bow, and slowly yet certainly come to the end of that memorable First Performance, a gratitude wells up in their hearts, shouting to be heard—gratitude to their patient directors, their helpful supporting cast and understudies, their appreciative audience. And to keep that gratitude undimmed, to hold the memory of their years at Xavier unchanged forever, they place them lovingly upon the pages of the 1957 XAVIERIAN.

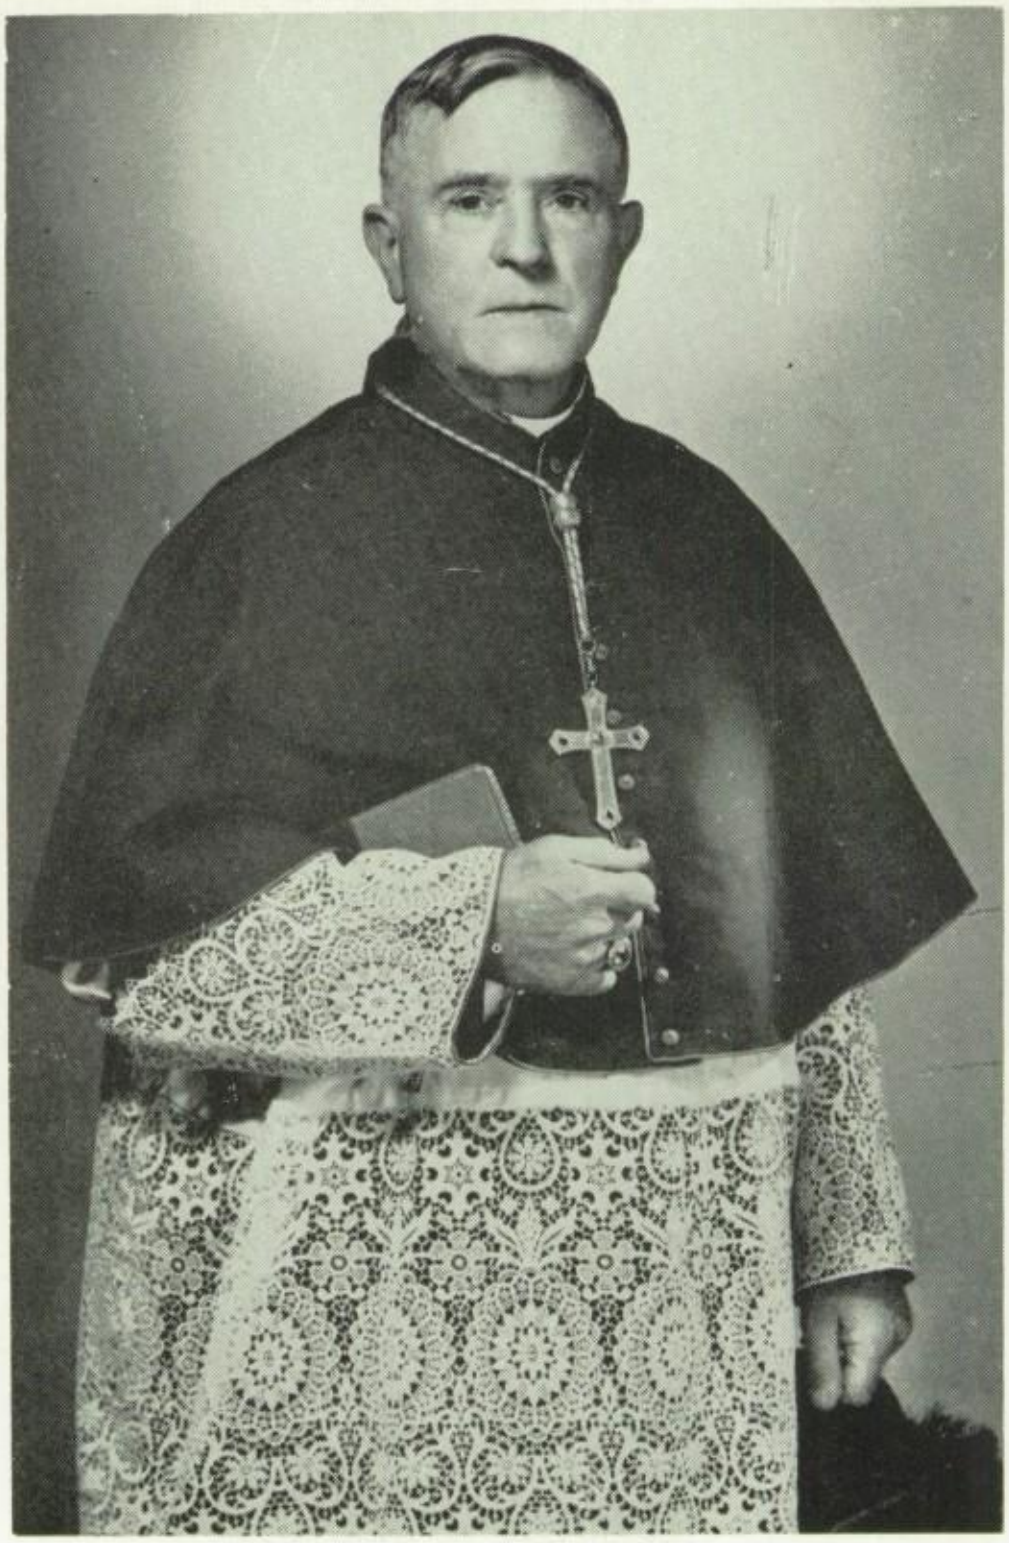
THE OLD AND THE NEW in perfect harmony. In lines of simple dignity and beauty, the new Xavier has been built to match and complement the architectural design of the old Brophy. The lovely tower of St. Francis Xavier keeps eternal watch above a peaceful, sunlit landscape.



TO THE STUDENTS OF XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL
PHOENIX, ARIZONA

Once again some of you are preparing to leave your beloved Alma Mater, having finished a relatively good part of your education.

You have enjoyed a singular blessing in the privilege that has been yours of a sound Catholic training. This means that you have been taught the final purpose of life in this world.

Man has been created by God just a little less than the angels; he should not be the slave of lower creation; nor is his destiny to serve the purposes of other men or even of angels; no object less than God Infinite and Eternal is worthy of an immortal soul rational and free.

This is what true education means—that man belongs to God. Nothing less can satisfy the desires of the human heart because God has fashioned it that way.

With congratulations and a blessing, I am

Devotedly yours in Christ,

+Daniel Gercke,

BISHOP OF TUCSON

MY DEAR GIRLS:

Sincere congratulations to you as the first graduating class of the New Xavier High School. But greater distinction than being the first class to graduate is that you are a graduate of Xavier High School. By that fact alone you should be different.

You have been trained after your wondrous Model, the Blessed Virgin Mary. The education at Xavier High School has set you apart by lifting you up upon a pedestal where man may look up to you for inspiration and help. The modern world will tempt you to come down to its level of thinking and of acting. If you do, it cannot fail to look upon you as an ordinary woman.

But remain where your loving Model remained, for all eyes to be raised aloft to see you in all your goodness. Then you are fullfilling your grand vocation of womanhood—by your holy living you make the world better and so much happier.

God love and keep you!

Daniel J. Kelleher SJ

DANIEL J. KELLEHER, S. J.

DEAR GRADUATE:

Tonight the last act is over, the curtain has been rung down, and you come to the end of a "First Performance" well done. Before the applause dies away, let me add my own congratulations to those of your friends and loved ones. Let me wish you well in the name of every teacher who has helped you toward this night.

As you graduate, our joy is full in the knowledge that you are well-equipped for what lies ahead. The strong foundation of a Catholic education is yours, the bulwark of Christian ideals is firm about you. In your hearts have been sown the seeds of a fruitful love of Truth and Beauty, and before your eyes has been placed the bright image of your Leading Lady.

Our task is done, and now it remains for you to carry the lessons learned out onto the greater stage of tomorrow's world. God bless you as you go, and Mary be your Star, your Inspiration.

Lovingly,

Sister Mary Emerita, B.V.M.

XAVIER HIGH SCHOOL is conducted by the Sisters of Charity of the Blessed Virgin Mary, whose lives are dedicated to the two-fold end of personal sanctification and the salvation of souls. This second end "is to be attained by the Christian education imparted by our Sisters in their schools," and to this end is directed every energy and activity. Under the direction of the Jesuit Fathers of St. Francis Xavier Parish, and with the assistance of a number of devoted lay faculty members, Xavier has taken its place as an institution of learning devoted to the Glory of God and the service of youth.

NOT SHOWN: SUSAN PALMER

Sodality

THE ACQUIRING of a life-long devotion to Our Blessed Lady and the imitating of her virtues is the aim of the Sodalist. The high school sodality fosters an interest in the parish sodalities and prepares its members for the transition into these adult organizations.

Mary Elaine Cavanaugh crowns her Queen in the traditional coronation ceremony in May. Attendants are Marianne Ludwig, Sue Wolfe, and Elaine Walsh.

Junior Good Shepherd Guild

THE JUNIOR GOOD SHEPHERD GUILD is a service club organized to give material assistance to the Good Shepherd Home for Girls, principally through the sponsorship of fund-raising social functions. Under the direction of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd, more pertinent services are performed in conducting classes in Christian Doctrine and in occasional clerical work at the Home.

Confraternity

CONFRATERNITY workers teach religion classes at several centers. In this group are teachers at St. Rita, Blessed Sacrament, Sacred Heart, Our Lady of Guadalupe, and Pius IX. They include, seated, Juliet Cardinal, Katy Hiett, Norma Hall, Paula Donnelly, Jo Ann Dreckman, Christiana Tefft, Carol Duenas, and Margaret Grabach; standing, Karen Vurich, Cathleen Pocock, Ruthanne Matteson, Carol Milani, Maria Platt, Janet Chadwick, Marilyn Rollins, and Toni Turner.

ST. ANTHONY teachers are; seated, Margaret Lohmiller, Loretto Coles, Mary Elaine Cavanaugh, Margaret Ferriter, Elaine Lutfy, Patricia Milani, and Patricia Duddy; standing, Barbara Coates, Gail Harms, Mary Taylor, Ann Dibrell, and Mary Wallace.

A course in home nursing was selected by a Senior group as a worthwhile project. Karen Clements, under the sheet, is probably the most uncomfortable person in the room.

Xavier Hi-Fi

EDITOR MARGUERITE GALLAGHER

INITIATED AND published entirely by students, the XAVIER HI-FI made its appearance in September, 1956. Its object is to keep the student body informed of current school events and gossip.

EDITOR ELAINE WALSH

Xavierian

THE PRODUCTION of the XAVIERIAN consumes the interest and cooperation of the student body, and the labor of a large, diligent staff during the greater part of the second semester. This year's "First Performance" marks the first publication from the new Xavier, and attempts to embody the traditions which have been carried into the present from the heritage of the old Xavier, its faculty, and the students of yesterday.

Xavier Mothers Club

XAVIER'S MOST LOYAL supporters are without doubt our mothers. Organized into a club only in the spring of 1956, the group undertook the tremendous project of equipping the foods laboratory, and has carried it to a successful finish. Any project dear to the students or to the sisters becomes an object of primary concern to our mothers. Our deepest love and thanks are theirs.

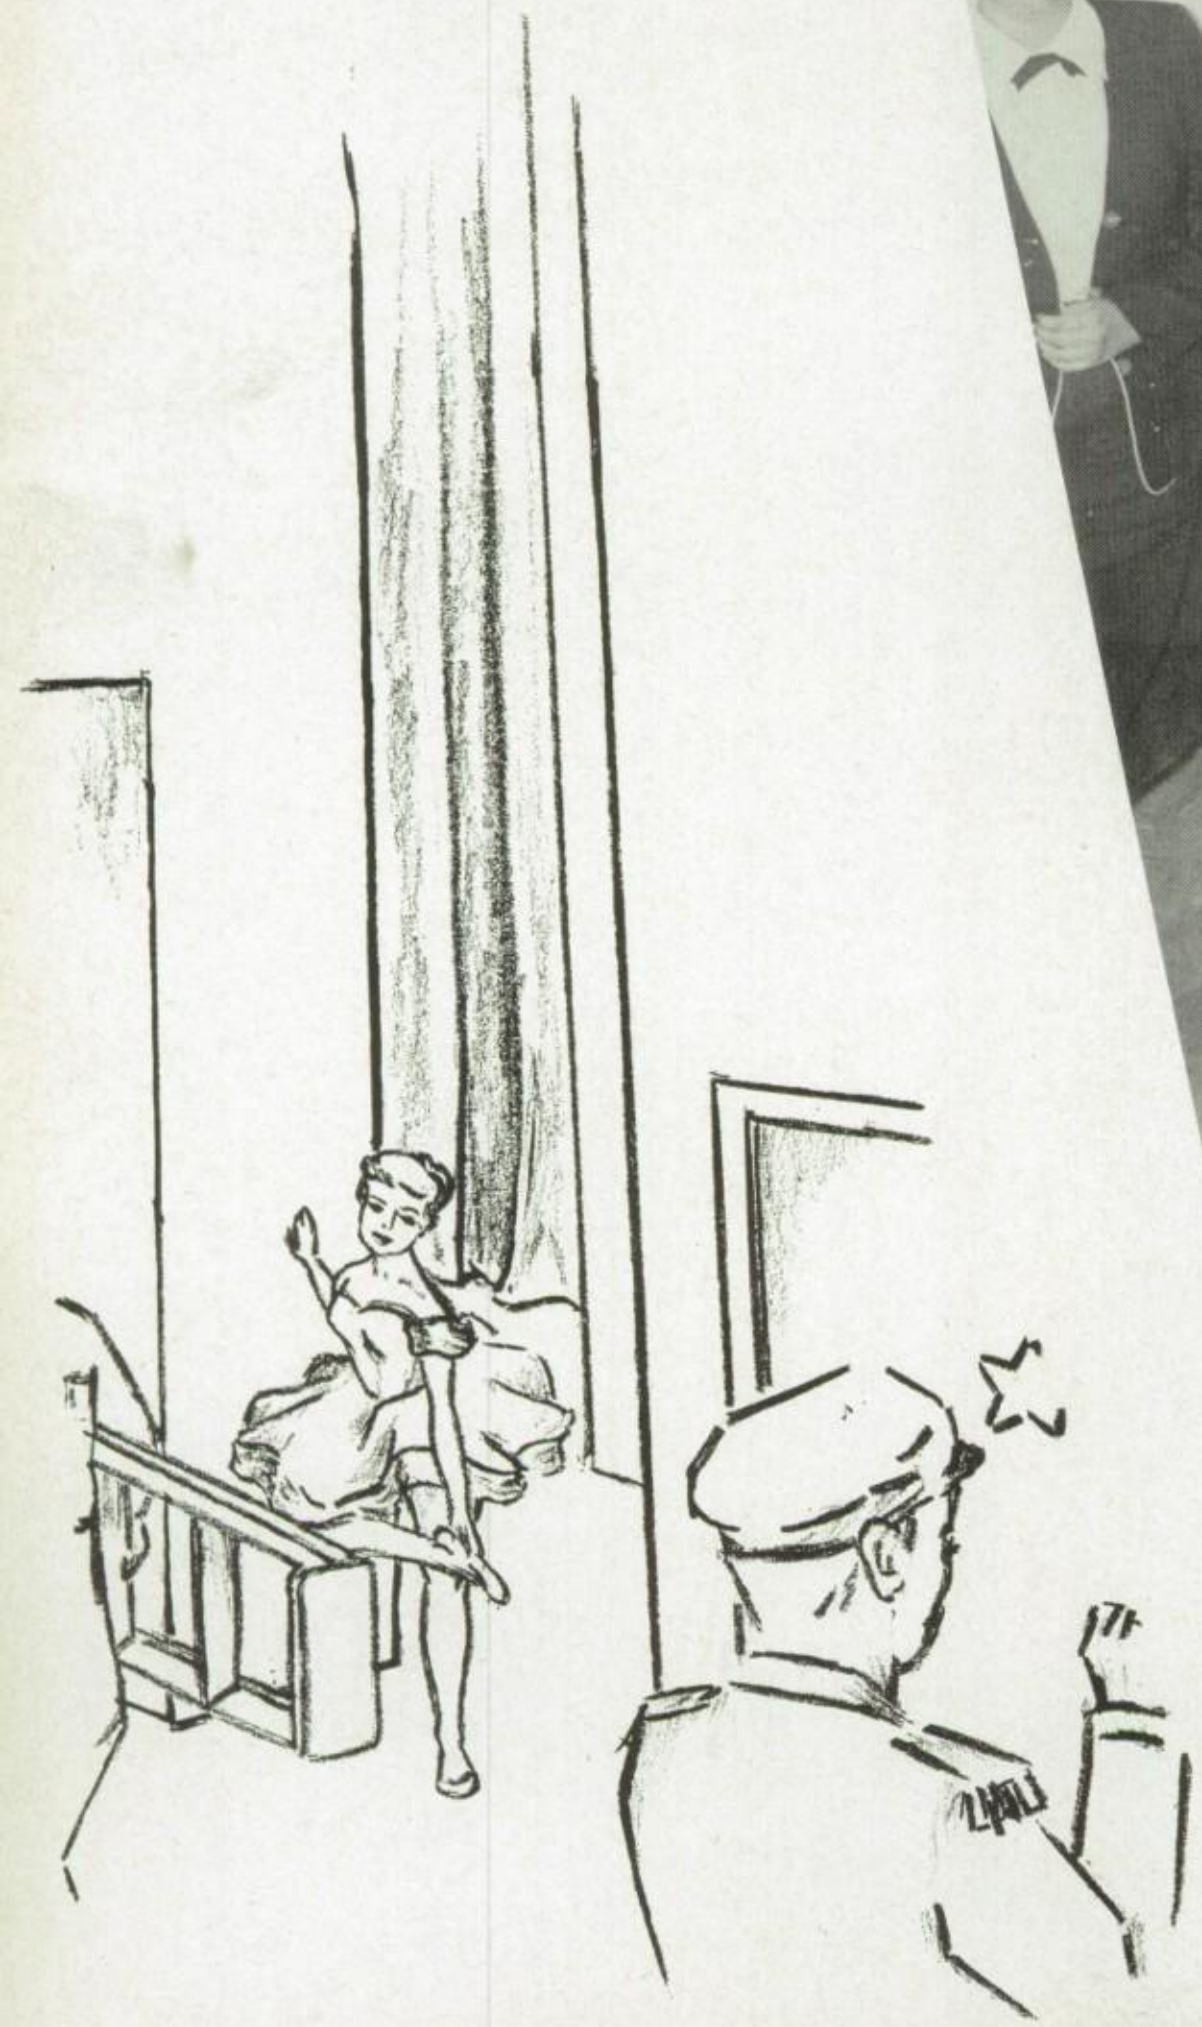
KEEPING IT IN the family. Two Xavier girls are better than one, and three is best of all, with the Means sisters holding the edge.

On Stage for



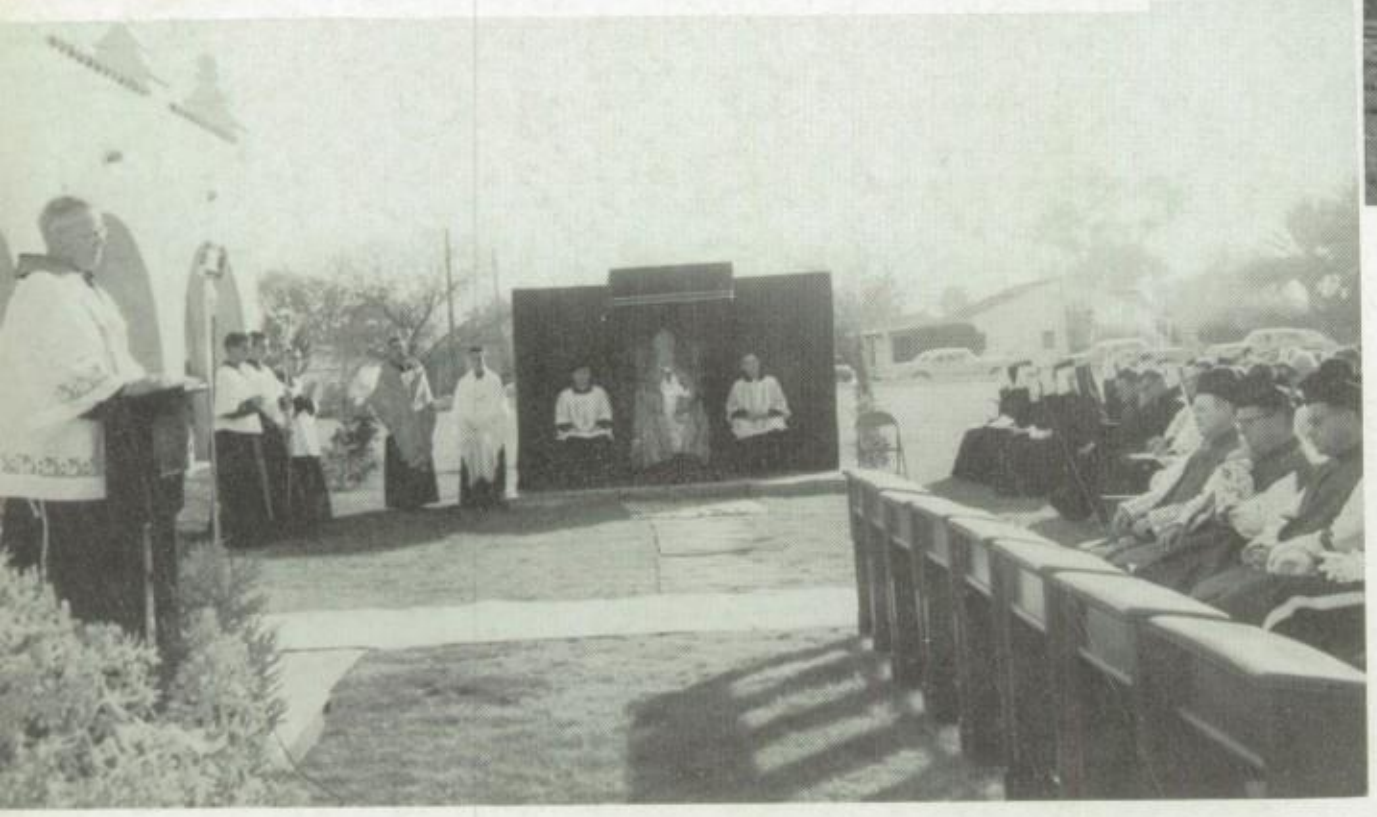
School Life

Act 1 . . . Thy Kingdom Come

FIRST THINGS FIRST . . . the foundation upon which Christian education is established is above all a spiritual one. Left: A closed retreat, under the direction of Father Stewart, S. J., at Casa de Paz y Bien, prepares seniors for the all-important business of living according to God's plan. Below: Return engagement for Father Parrish, S.J. in the annual retreat for underclassmen.

THE CHAPEL is the center of Xavier school life . . . the Blessed Sacrament its Heart. Daily Mass, brief visits . . . or a loving greeting at change of class . . . and Christ's blessing goes with us through the day.

DEDICATION DAY . . . December 2, 1956. The hearts of students, faculty, and well-wishers unite in a chorus of thanksgiving as our beloved Bishop blesses Xavier. Below: The Rev. Victor Bucher, O.F.M., delivers the dedication sermon.



The lovely bronze Joan of Arc, gift of Mr. Frank Cullen Brophy, greets students at the entrance of the Mabel Horrigan Memorial Library.

Rhyme and Reason

XAVIER HAS BUT ONE AIM, the education of youth for Christ. This is accomplished through the medium of instruction founded on Christian principles and through the formation of the will in habits of virtue. Through the development of every faculty and talent toward this end, students are prepared for leadership in Christian society.

Left: Rita Schmidt and Liz Wilmer, volunteering for a busy hour in the library, give assistance to senior Linda Hiett. Right: Seniors lost in the production of a research paper.

The King's English

"When in Rome' . . . or Spain

MOVE OVER, MR. EINSTEIN! Xavier mathematicians are working their way over the hurdles of algebraic signs and geometric figures.

WHAT'S COOKING? Something new has been added to the Xavier curriculum. Below: Mrs. K. conducts classes in foods and clothing in the beautifully equipped home economics department.

BUSINESS WOMEN IN THE MAKING. Above: There SHOULD be mimeograph ink on SOMEBODY'S face! Upper right: Sister Mary Ralph: "a-s-d-f-g-h-j . . . " Circle: Karen: "I knew what it was when I wrote it!" Right: Kaye McIntosh and Muriel Manion display unusual interest in modern advertising.

Time Marches On

. . . AND KEEPING PACE WITH IT are the Xavier girls, broadening their views of democracy, world affairs, and current events. Below: Valerie Valliquette displays her book-week poster for the history division. Lower right: Margaret Lohmiller takes the familiar stance of Abe Lincoln. Yes, Margaret is from Illinois.

"But, Maxine, the chair IS bewitched!" Linda Hiett and Elaine perform for the Mothers Club in HAVE A SEAT, PLEASE. Left: Patti Sullivan is "jus' a li'l ole country gal in the city" in her hilarious satire at the Senior Assembly. Lower left: "I want my magic chair," says Phyllis Harrington, alias Mrs. Bird, the witch.

All-Star Performances

MONTHLY STUDENT BODY ASSEMBLIES provide an outlet for dramatic talent and a spirit of fun. Student-staged and produced, the assemblies have created a spirit of competition among classes, and an eagerness to participate in group projects.

"O Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean!" Sue Tribolet portrays Liberty at the Junior Assembly AMERICA SINGS. Above: "On a Bicycle Built for Two" turned out to be a tricycle, as Monnie Tiffany and Liz Wilmer set the style on a tandem bike.

Colonial Fantasy

THE SOPHOMORE assembly, COLONIAL FANTASY, was presented in true southern fashion. Belles with their hoop skirts, beaux with their powdered wigs and polished manners, and the negroes with their spirituals and songs of joy all contributed to the graciousness of life in the South. At left, Dolores McHugh and Gloria Tury hide behind a little shoe polish for their number.

Erin Go Bragh

SURE 'N IT'S A BIT O' BLARNEY that the freshman class presented at the St. Patrick's Assembly. Below, representatives of Erin's history unfold a story of heartbreak and courage, yet the lads and colleens dance the jig with gay Irish hearts.

Marie Nestler, Karyl Donovan, and Frances Sullivan tap lightly to "the Irish Washerwoman," while their classmates portray Irish folk dancing to "the lilt of the piper's tune."

Intermission

WITH POINTED TOE AND CLICKING CASTANETS, Amaya Salcido performs an authentic Spanish dance at the Spanish Dinner.

Mary Elaine Cavanaugh, Dotty McIntosh, and Pat Wylie add the finishing touches to the Christmas Crib and tree.

You never can tell what you'll find behind a door. Barbara Coates and Marilyn discover their classmates taking the sun at the State Capitol.

Calling all songbirds — come and join us! Senior sextet prepare for the Spring Concert.

Seniors All

Center: Three lovely models, Loretto Coles, Grace Silva, and Gail Harms, are ready for the Fashion Show.

Lower right: Seniors serve themselves on any day. A maximum of sunshine and fresh air is guaranteed in the arcade lunch room.

Here . . .

. . . and There

SCENES THAT WE LIKE to remember . . . following the Brophy team to Tucson . . . junior and sophomore Valentine box lunches . . . sophomore COLONIAL FANTASY . . . an outdoors Christmas shrine . . . looking for shelter . . . Sister Mary Blandina and Elizabeth . . . seniors browsing through the Capitol's gallery.

Act 3 . . .

May Night . . . "O Mary, we crown thee" . . . Sodality officers pay a loving final tribute to Our Lady.

Junior-Senior Banquet at the ABC Club.

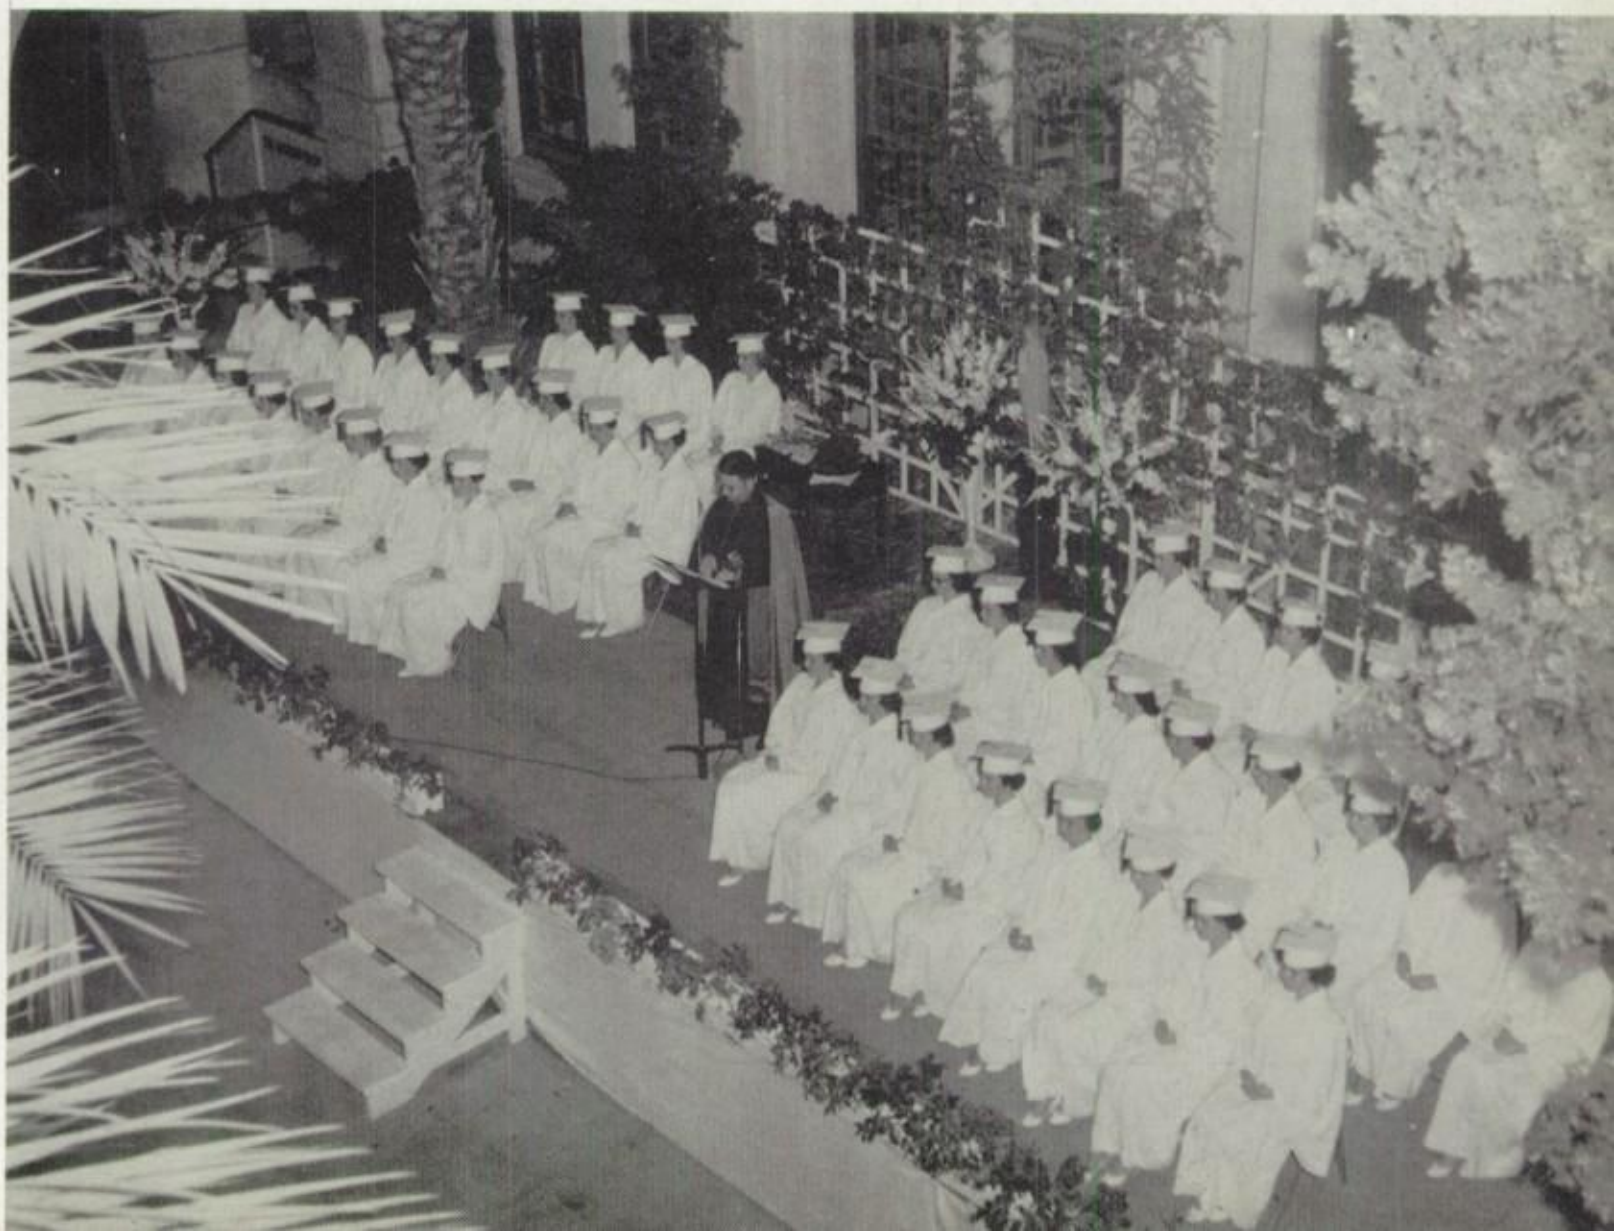
Year's End

ANOTHER "EVENING IN PARADISE", under Mary's loving patronage. The Paradise Valley Country Club proves a perfect setting for a perfect evening at the Junior-Senior Prom.

Climax

AT LAST THE POMP AND CIRCUMSTANCE . . . and Graduation! This is the climax of four years of work and fun . . . of smiles and tears . . . This is the Performance for which each day has been a preparation . . . This is the End . . . and this is a Beginning.

AND SO GOODBYE to Xavier The last award is given . . . the last words of wisdom and advice spoken . . . the last lesson learned. This is the Grand Finale to our First Performance.



Appreciation

TO THE MANY FRIENDS and advertisers who have so generously supported the 1957 XAVIERIAN, the students and faculty extend a sincere "thank you."

The entire staff wishes to express its appreciation to the faculty and student body for their service and cooperation; to its patient photographer, Eddie Deuel; to Mrs. John Abraham for her generous assistance in our advertising campaign; and to Miss Jacque Lopez, Class of '54, for her interest and help in the production of this year's XAVIERIAN.

. . . OR DOES IT?

ARIZONA
Public Service
YOUR LOCALLY MANAGED TAXPAYING UTILITY

Some of the world's political systems just don't add up. So when you hear talk of Utopia (a much used name derived from the Greek for "nowhere"), be ready to question; see if it figures! Chances are it won't add up to the individual freedom of our own system of free enterprise . . . won't have as fair a setup as taxation according to income . . . won't include a choice of where we work or what we do with our money. Look over our own competitive system closely . . . it's not perfect but it works just fine . . . and we're free to improve it!
